FIGHT TO END ONLY COURSE

Cincinnati Traction Officials
Ignore Demand of Strikers.

WILL TRY TO RESUME SERVICE

Have Five Hundred Men Imported
From Other Cities and Make Demand Upon City Officials For Adequate Police Protection—Employees
Uphold Their Leaders In Request
That the Union Be Recognized.

Cincinnati, O., May 14.—After hours of fruitless conferences, in which Mayor Henry T. Hunt was the intermediary between the Cincinnati Traction company and its striking employees, the deadlock is still on and the streetcar system is absolutely paralyzed. The traction company officials are willing to open negotiations, but declare they can not recognize the recently organized union. On the other hand, the union leaders declare that the recognition of the union must take precedence over their other demands.

It was announced by Safety Director Dennis Cash that the company had notified him that it would make a determined attempt some time today to resume service and called on him to give adequate police protection.

It is freely predicted that if the company attempts to run any of its cars there will be serious trouble.
Earlier in the strike attempts by the company to start its cars were quickly frustrated by mobs, which burned several of the cars and badly wrecked others.

The company now has about 500 men imported from other cities and says that it is in a condition to resume its schedules if the police will assist them. Chief of Police Copelan has the entire police force on duty in two shifts of 12 hours each, with an emergency force of 100 men provided with automobiles to be rushed to the scene of any trouble. He declares, however, he will be unable to place policemen on any cars which the streetcar company may attempt to operate.

The striking employees held a meeting, at which it was decided to uphold the leaders in their demand that the union be recognized before negotiations are opened with the traction company.

LAUNCHING OF "VATERLAND," THE WORLD'S LARGEST STEAMER

To the left we see the great ship leaving the ways at Hamburg, Germany, and on the right Prince Rupprecht in uniform on the way to perform the christening ceremonies. The "Vaterland" is 950 feet long, 100 feet beam, speed 22½ knots and will have lifeboats to accommodate 6,000.

PEACE PIPE IS FILLED TO LIMIT

MEMBERS FAVOR PARTY POWWOW

Republican National Committee
In Sympathy With Idea.

ONLY QUESTION IS THE DATE

First Step Toward Calling Convention Will Be Taken Next Week, When
the Executive Committee Will Issue
the Call For Meeting of the Full Committee—Attitude of Regular Republicans.

Washington, May 14.—Plans for the reorganization and rehabilitation of the Republican party are going forward in a way that is entirely satisfactory, not only to Senator Cummins and the progressive Republicans who trekked out to Chicago for a conference on the subject, but the regular Republicans, with a few exceptions, are giving encouragement to the movement.

It was learned from a reliable source that the Republican national committee has been polled and a majority of its members are in favor of calling a national conference of Republicans for the purpose of reaching a better understanding and working together for the rejuvenation of the party. The only question that remains controversial is as to the date for calling the convention. Senator Cummins and his friends favor an early convention, not later than September. Senator Root and some of the other conservative Republicans believe it would be wiser to have the convention postponed until next year.

The first step towards calling for a convention probably will be taken in Washington next week, when the executive committee of the Republican national committee meets here. Chairman Hilles of the national committee issued the call for the meeting of the executive committee, and it is practically settled that at this meeting the call for the meeting of the full Republican national committee will be issued.

Bryan and Johnson In Serious Mood Over Japanese Question

Photos by American Press Association.

CAN you blame Mr. Bryan for looking peeved? It happened this way:
After the California legislature listened to the secretary of state, who acted as President Wilson's emissary in the anti-alien land bill trouble, Governor Johnson accompanied the secretary to the station in an automobile. The upper picture shows how both looked. In the smaller pic-

FOR FOUR LONG HOURS THE FIGHT RAGED

BURTON FIGHTS IT

Nomination of Georgia Man To Be
Director of the Census.

Washington, May 14.—For four hours the senate struggled behind closed doors over the question of confirming the nomination of Walter H.
Harris of Georgia to be director of the census to succeed Dana Durand.
Hoke Smith of Georgia led the fight for Mr. Harris, who recommended him to President Wilson for the office, and Senator Burton of Ohio led the fight on the Republican side against confirming the nomination. No action was taken.

ATTACKED IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY

NEPHEW HELD

Baptist Minister, Beaten and Shot.
Will Probably Die.

Ironton, O., May 14.—The Rev. Lee Boyd, 50, a Baptist clergyman, was beaten into insensibility and then shot five times, while he was on his way home to Deering, O., after a visit in this city. It is believed that he will die. Boyd's nephew, Willard Woods, a well-known farmer, was arrested, charged with the assault, and was placed in jail. It is alleged that Woods confessed that he had attacked the minister because the latter had charged him with misconduct in church.

Condition of America's Richest
Young Man Causes Concern.

A recurrence of throat trouble has caused anxiety for the health of Vincent Astor of New York, the son of Colonel John Jacob Astor, who lost his life on the ill-fated Titanic, and succeeded to be the richest young man in this country. Easy preparations had been made by Mr.
Astor to entertain the United States senate committee on military affairs at Ferncliffe, the Astor summer home, but his illness necessitated the abandonment of the plan.

TESTIMONY DOES NOT BEAR OUT THE CLAIM

CHARGES DISCREDITED

Doctor Koch's Allegations Against Doctor Baber Get an Airing.

Dayton, O., May 14.—Charges of immorality, misconduct in office and gross neglect of duty brought against Dr. E. A. Baber, superintendent of the Dayton state hospital, by Dr. J. V.
Koch, were discredited in testimony
given to members of the state board of administration at the investigation, and in turn witnesses were introduced who charged Dr. Koch with cruelty to patients while acting as assistant superintendent at the hospital.

The principal charge, that Dr. Baber had insulted one of the institution stenographers, was discredited when the stenographer, Miss Margaret Deuschle, took the stand and testified as to its falsity.

Taking the stand in his own behalf, Dr. Koch denied having ordered attendants to beat an insane prisoner to keep him quiet or to "paste his mouth shut." However, the charge that some of the attendants had been intoxicated while on duty was substantiated by witnesses.

The board adjourned the hearing
until 10 o'clock Friday morning, when it will be continued in the offices of the board in Columbus.

SHARP DEBATE IN THE SENATE

Adoption of Motion For Executive Session Prevents Vote On the Question, Which Is Left Up In the Air.
LaFollette Suggestion, Modifying
Penrose's Amendment, Is Accepted
by the Latter.

Washington, May 14.—Daily it is becoming more apparent that the Democrats are going to have a tight squeeze
in carrying the present tariff program through the senate. Again they avoided a vote on the proposition to dispense with hearings on the bill and were obliged to adjourn without any progress having been made.

For two hours there was a debate on the question, in which party lines were sharply drawn. Finally the Democrats put an end to the colloquy by motioning for an executive session.

Chairman Simmons took the floor and held it for nearly two hours. He renewed his motion for a reference to the finance committee, and immediately Senator Penrose offered an amendment instructing the committee to grant hearings. Before the debate ended, Senator LaFollette came forward with a modification of Senator Penrose's amendment which directed the finance committee to propound to all persons who sought hearings 16
questions to be answered under oath, intended to elicit information as to the particular industry involved, the cost of production at home and abroad, the amount of importations,
market prices, competition and transportation. Senator Penrose accepted
Mr. LaFollette's amendment.

In his speech, Chairman Simmons warned senators that if public hearings were held it would prolong the tariff legislation for six weeks at least.

NICE JOB FOR WIDOW OF GENERAL IS PROVIDED

Washington, May 14.—Mrs. Helen
D. Longstreet, widow of General
James Longstreet of the Confederate army, whose reappointment as postmaster at Gainesville, Ga., has been denied, stated that a former federal soldier has offered her a position paying $3,000 a year. Colonel Albert E.
Boone of Clarksburg, W. Va., made the offer.

GOVERNOR TO SIGN IT

Anti-Alien Land Bill Passed by the Arizona Legislature.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 14.—The senate has approved the anti-alien land measure passed by the house and it will now go to the governor. The proposed law prevents an alien who has not declared citizenship intentions from owning real estate or leasing it for more than five years. Four hundred Japanese residents have petitioned the governor to veto the measure. It is expected the bill will be signed.

FIRE THREATENS CITIZEN TELEPHONE PLANT AND BUILDING

High Voltage Wire in Columbus Falls on Toll Line, Kindling Fire in Exchange Rooms Here, Where Ugly Blaze Is Extinguished in Nick of Time—Toll Lines Out of Commission for Hours.

At 4:10 o'clock this morning the Washington Home Telephone company's exchange and the building in which it is located, narrowly escaped destruction by a fire which started from Columbus by a high tension wire falling upon the United State toll line at that point, and the heavy current of 33,000 volts traveling to this city and burning out the toll line terminal and toll line cable and igniting the building.

When the high voltage reached the terminal in this city there was a burst of flame and in an instant the terminal was a mass of flame which burst through the terminal box and leaped to the ceiling, catching the woodwork and gaining fast hold on the building.

Cries from the operators aroused Mr. Art Murray who was in the McCoy undertaking rooms below, and he rushed up-stairs to ascertain the cause of the commotion. Upon reaching the head of the stairway and beholding the cause of the alarm, he dashed back down-stairs, secured a bucket of water and once more rushed up and within a few minutes had extinguished the blaze and eliminated the danger of a big conflagration. The operators assisted in the work.

A fire alarm was turned in and the department responded, reaching the scene just after the danger was over. A few minutes' delay would have meant a dangerous blaze with the probable destruction of the exchange, the McCoy Undertaking establishment, and possibly the block adjoining, owned by Mr. C. H. Murray.

Telephone linemen were immediately called to the scene after the fire and the work of making temporary repairs commenced, and communication was restored later in the day.

What would have been the result had the toll line been in use when the heavy charge of electricity went crashing through it, is hard to say. The Columbus terminal escaped damage by the wire being burned off the instant the high tension wire touched it.

A fire kindled some 45 miles from the scene of the blaze is somewhat out of the ordinary in this city.

The great calamity in Omaha was quickly over-shadowed by the terribly disastrous floods in Ohio. Great suffering and sickness from colds and exposure resulted which Foley's Honey and Tar Compound helped to alleviate. L. Poole, 2217 California St., Omaha, writes: "My daughter had a severe cough and cold but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound knocked it out in no time. My wife would not keep house without it. We have used it for years, always with good results." Blackmer and Tanquary. Adv.

Farmers Pleased With Rainfall

Every farmer in Fayette county was greatly pleased with the rain which fell early Thursday morning, and which caused the iron-like clods which have resisted the efforts of all machinery to pulverize, to fall to pieces like so much lime.

The growing crops were in great need of the rain also, and particularly the spring sown clover and grass, and the wheat. It meant thousands of dollars to Fayette county farmers, and that is the reason for the widespread pleasure among the tillers of the soil and all citizens in general.

Buys Cheap Oil For Circleville

Louis Schneider, director of public service closed the contract Monday with the National Refining company for 40,000 gallons of oil at 4 7-8 cents per gallon and in all probability work of oiling the streets will begin next week.

The bids of the Standard Oil company was 6 1/4 cents per gallon and of the Wabash Refining company 5 1-8. Mr. Schneider has also purchased an additional sprinkling wagon at a cost of $375, which he will convert into an oil wagon. He calculates that he will save the city of Circleville $600. Its streets certainly need attention. Never were they in a worse condition and on those in which traffic is heavy the dust is almost a foot deep. Circleville Union Herald.

In Social Circles

The forty girls, of Mrs. Maggie H. Hopkins' Sunday School class, banded together as the "M. H. girls" enjoyed a most delightful class spread on the beautiful velvet lawn of the Hopkins home Tuesday evening at six o'clock.

The picnic supper, a feast of delicious viands was in honor of a number of new members and some who are going away. The warm evening permitted genuine picnic pleasure and later the girls repaired to the house and enjoyed the Victrola and Grand piano in an impromptu concert program.

The "Loyal Daughters" of the Christian church were hospitably entertained at the home of Miss Chloe Brock Tuesday evening. It was the monthly meeting and also an experience meeting, each daughter relating how she had earned the dollar brought into the treasury. The experiences created no little fun and a nice lunch, music and a good social time rounded up the evening.

NOTICE

Baxter Cleared By Judge Kinkead

Special to Herald.

Columbus, O., May 14.—Judge Kinkead rendered a decision today in the case of Ohio against former state bank superintendent, Frank E. Baxter, holding that there was no intention to defraud, and throwing the case out of court.

The state charged Baxter with being guilty of embezzlement for temporarily using funds in his custody. He paid interest on these funds.

This institute is in the special interest of the Bloomsburg, Cook and Madison Mills unions, although a cordial invitation is extended to all the unions of the county, and to the pastors, and the general public.

Mrs. Augusta Barnes, county superintendent of Flower Mission work will be present to talk over plans for the observance of Flower Mission Day at the Infirmary and Children's home. A basket dinner will be served.

Belled Buzzard Caught at Last

Marysville, O., May 13.—No more will the merry tinkle of the "Belled Buzzard" be heard in and around Union county.

The buzzard was caught in a trap by Milton and Ellsworth Loughrey, of York township, who removed the bell from the big bird's neck before releasing it.

The "Belled Buzzard" has been a familiar visitor all over central Ohio for several years, and a buzzard with the same kind of a bell on its neck has been seen in Florida. It was believed to be the same bird, as buzzards are known to go South in the winter. It has been seen repeatedly at points ranging from the great lakes to the Gulf of Mexico.

Many will regret that the "Belled Buzzard" has lost its mark of distinction, but it will help to solve the question of whether there was more than one buzzard with a bell on its neck.

Fractures Ankle While Fishing

While Mrs. James Hays, of this city was in company with other women enjoying an afternoon of fishing, along Paint creek on the Hardway farm south of town, she stepped upon a stone which turned, snapping her right limb just above the ankle. The nearest telephone was nearly a mile distant, and while aid was being summoned Mrs. Hays suffered the most excruciating pain from the fracture. Mr. Earl McLean went to the scene in his automobile, and, in company with a physician, brought Mrs. Hays to her home.

Engineer's Verdict

To the Daily Herald.

By request from some of our citizens who are prospective subscribers to the Mausoleum to be erected in our cemetery, I left home on Monday morning, May 12th, 1913, and went to Woodworth, Ohio, where a structure has just been completed upon the same plans as the one to be built here, to examine and report as to my findings.

As this is a proposition in which many of our citizens are interested and which will probably be a partial solution to the congested condition of our cemetery, I take this method of making my findings known to all. The construction of building is as represented by the drawings in windows of the Washington Savings bank and the Midland National bank. The construction is of the most substantial nature and the work done as though the people expected to stay in the business.

I found by inquiry amongst the citizens of Woodworth that the people are very well pleased with the building and I do not think any one could see the structure without approving it.

As to the durability of the building there can be no question, as it is stone and reinforced concrete throughout, with floors in chapel and corridors of tile and walls lined with slabs of white marble about one inch thick.

The building, if necessary, would take care of one hundred people in the chapel and corridors, in bad weather. I am sorry that all who are interested cannot see it, for the time is not far distant when this or something other than burial in the ground will be compulsory for sanitary reasons.

Very respectfully,
R. C. HUNT.

DEATHS

Another Unusual Suggestion

Like a great many suggestions of reform which are more than tinged with Socialism is the one made by a noted Cleveland attorney that an increment tax would be a move in the direction of progress.

An increment tax means nothing more nor less, in common parlance, than a tax on the increase in value of property due to the improvements made by others on nearby real estate or to the growth of the city and the gain in the community prosperity.

In cases where the owner of real estate does nothing himself to increase the value of his property, but sits idly by and holds on to his property, while the ability, the industry, the thrift and the chances taken by others cause the community to grow and prosper, the supporters of the increment tax contend that the value added to the real estate so held should be taxed.

That course, it is claimed by them, would not only result in compelling a non-progressive owner to bear more nearly his proportionate share of the increased cost of maintaining the larger community, but it would tend very strongly to break up the reprehensible habit, which some men have, of holding on to real estate until others make it valuable.

Like all socialistic ideas the proposal, as a theory, can be supported by strong arguments. There is no denying the fact that men who obtain title to real estate in the cities merely for the purpose of holding on to it while the toilers of smaller means go forward and make it valuable, are a blight on any community.

That some means should be devised to break up that habit is undeniably true. It does not look just, that the man who improves his land should have his burden of taxes increased because of the improvements and the extra value he, by making the improvements, adds to his land, while the owner, who does nothing with his property can sit idly by and profit more than the man who goes ahead.

Whether the increment tax, however, is the remedy to cure an acknowledged ill is seriously challenged.

The problem of what to do with the non progressive owners of real estate in growing cities is one of those which has existed during the life of our present taxing system and is just now being recognized and pressing for solution.

Like many others it is not as easy of solution as those who tend to Socialism would make it appear.

But the problem must be dealt with soon.

Law Is Far Behind the Progress of the Day

Attacks Upon Courts Mean Unrest

By Justice OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES of the United States Supreme Court

SCIENCE has taught the world skepticism and made it legitimate to put everything to the TEST OF PROOF, the supreme court, of course, not excepted. Not only are we told that when Marshall pronounced an act of congress unconstitutional he usurped a power that the constitution did not give, but we are told that we are the representatives of a class—A TOOL OF THE MONEY POWER.

It is very painful when one spends all the energies of one's soul in trying to do good work, with no thought but that of solving a problem according to the rules by which one is bound, to know that MANY SEE SINISTER MOTIVES and would be glad of evidence that one was consciously bad.

THE ATTACKS UPON THE COURT ARE MERELY AN EXPRESSION OF THE UNREST THAT SEEMS TO WONDER VAGUELY WHETHER LAW AND ORDER PAY.

A very important truth to be extracted from the popular discontent is that judges, particularly in state courts, have read their conscious or unconscious sympathies prematurely into the law.

IT CANNOT BE HELPED—IT IS AT IT SHOULD BE—THAT THE LAW IS BEHIND THE TIMES.

Poetry For Today

(Washington Cor. N. Y. Times.)
The muse struck her lyre in the house again today, when Representative Simeon D. Fess, of Yellow Springs, Ohio, closed a sarcastic speech on the tariff bill with some verses on "The Things We Buy and Those We Sell."

Mr. Fess is a Republican. Beginning as a farm boy, he was president of Antioch college last summer, when he beat the four competitors for the nomination for congress. His tariff doctrine was outlined in the following verses:

I ain't no statesman who can talk of protection or free trade;
My han's too stiff to hol' a pen—that was made to hol' a spade;
Them ten-foot eddicated words my tongue can't wallop round,
But I'll make things you sell go up, an' things you buy come down.

I can't talk on the currency, nor on the revenue,
An' on the laws an' stateoots I'm as ignorant as you;
An' I jest simply promise you, sure's I am Silas Brown,
I'll make things you sell go up, an' things you buy come down.

The fair ground echoed wide with cheers and loud huzzas thereat,
For who can make a better scheme of statesmanship than that?
An' next week at the polls he beat his rival high and dry—
But thinks we sell continue low, and things we buy are high.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

It is said that Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal has directed that the motion picture films taken by an operator on an aeroplane driven over the isthmus recently by Robert G. Fowler be destroyed. Report is that the negatives reveal too accurately the plan of canal fortifications and other government work in the zone.

Meat packing industry in Chicago has reached a volume of $390,000,000 a year; 40,000 persons work in the stock yards; 8,000,000 hogs, 2,650,000 cattle, 500,000 calves and 6,000,000 sheep were received during the year 1912.

The longest-lived suit in the history of New York was settled yesterday; an action brought 50 years ago by Chas. Appleby for damages done his property on 11th avenue by a mob during the Civil war. Mr. Appleby sued for $7300 and interest which would have brought his claim up to $42,000. Through a compromise the claim for interest was dropped and Mr. Appleby was paid the $7300. He had 12 witnesses on hand who saw the mob wreck the house.

Although Bradley Martin left an estate valued at millions, nothing therein is taxable under the New York state inheritance laws, according to the official report of the appraiser filed several days ago. The entire estate in New York consisted of stocks and bonds in railroads and trust companies.

Relics of the Washington family have been offered by collateral descendants of the first president to the daughters of the British empire, to be deposited in the ancestral home of George Washington, at Sulgrave manor in England. The present owner, Lord Wardale has been petitioned to sell the old homestead and when it is purchased the furnishing and decorating will proceed at once.

Once more the impractical has been supplanted by the practical at Oregon Agricultural college and the 1913 graduates will receive diplomas in book form which they may carry in their pocket for immediate use.

The substitution of this miniature certificate for the old style parchment is due to the recommendation of a committee of seniors appointed to consider the change. A small black Morocco cover with gold letterings instead of the old-fashioned frame and glass will shield the hard-earned diplomas from moth and dust.

MOTHERS OF PUNY CHILDREN.

May Find Help In This Letter.

"My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worryment. Several months ago I secured a bottle of Vinol and commenced to give it to her. I soon noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her in all three bottles and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim." J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world-famed tonics—i. e. the strength-giving, body-building elements of cod liver oil with all the useless greases eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child, try Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to benefit your little one. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

BATTLESHIP PLANS STOLEN FROM OFFICE

Disclosure Seriously Disturbs the Navy Department.

Washington, May 14.—There have been repeated thefts of plans of United States battleships from the navy department offices. This disclosure caused a sensation in official circles. The thefts have been going on since the night of March 4, when certain plans of the newest dreadnought, Pennsylvania were stolen from bureau or steam engineering. Since that date similar plans of other ships have been missed from the same drafting rooms.

Agents of the department of justice have been out on the case, but up to date their investigations have brought no results. The fact of the thefts had been kept a close secret by navy department officials in the hope that the thief might be apprehended. Though it is the opinion of the navy department that the plans were taken by some one employed in the building, suspicion has not yet rested on any individual. The plans of the Pennsylvania which were taken are described as of little value in themselves. What alarms Secretary Daniels and his associates in the department is the fact that apparently some one is able to steal highly confidential papers from the department and get away with them undetected.

Great Britain Would Collect Debts Long Overdue.

London, May 14.—The trouble between Great Britain and Guatemala over the failure of the latter country to pay its debts to British citizens seems to be becoming acute. A day or two ago the British cruiser Acolus was sent in a hurry from Kingston, Jamaica, to Puerto Barrios. The debts referred to are long overdue, and it is thought that Sir Lionel G. The American government has its eyes on the affair, in view of the Monroe doctrine that no foreign government shall interfere in American affairs.

Officials at the foreign office state that the negotiations with Guatemala about the English debts were taking the usual course. These officials expressed the opinion that Guatemala would acquiesce in the demands of the British minister and that further steps would be unnecessary.

ROVING ROBBERS ARE STILL BUSY WITH EASY MARKS

Band of Thieving Gypsies Who Visited This City Monday Make Robbing a Specialty, and Have Often Been Arrested—Usually Work Fortune-telling Scheme, Robbed Many in Sedalia and Vicinity.

The same band of gypsies that passed through this city this week visited Sedalia in lower Madison county, and relieved a number of citizens of their cash, taking the money from their pockets and deliberately walking away with it.

Five of the unkept women stopped an old citizen, C. A. Henneman, and relieved him of a five dollar bill. Later he saw the woman and compelled her to return it. She also placed her hands in the pockets of Doc Andrews, but he promptly grabbed her hand and forced her to leave the contents of his pocket unmolested, giving her a smart cuff across the face to remind her that she had gotten the "wrong pig by the ear."

The gang attempted to pilfer every place they entered, and they entered nearly every business house in the village, laying hands upon various articles and starting out with them until hailed by the store-keeper.

They stopped a young colored man on the country road, and he was forced to flee to prevent them from taking his money and other valuables. Previous to visiting Sedalia they pilfered West Jefferson, Lafayette and other points, stopped many persons on the highway and under the pretext of telling their fortunes, deliberately robbed them of from one to ten dollars.

For several years this same band of disreputable rovers have been making trips throughout this part of Ohio, literally holding up and robbing citizens wherever they have met them.

At one time they were arrested in this county, tried and convicted, but upon returning the money to the one from whom they had taken it, and paying the costs in the case the women were released. They had huge rolls of bills, and it is estimated that they carried with them several thousand dollars, and it is further believed that the entire amount was stolen from "easy marks" who let them get away with it rather than protest and cause the arrest of the unprincipled nomads who evidently make their living by pilfering from others.

Time and again the gypsies have been arrested, but have always managed to escape more severe punishment than a mere fine, which was always readily paid and the offender released to again commence the same work of stealing before leaving the city or county.

The men remain in the wagons, while the glaringly dressed women do the prowling and stealing, and usually rob their victim while telling him his fortune, generally having him place his pocket-book in his hand, or a piece of money, or else deliberately reaching into the fellow's pocket and just as deliberately walking off with his money, usually from one to ten dollars.

In places of business they work by two or three, one attracting the merchant or clerk attention while the others pick up whatever they can get their hands on, or can the till.

In leaving this city this week the band was "muttering" against the treatment received here where the police drove them onward as soon as they learned that the band was in town.

BOOK LIBERALLY ILLUSTRATED

An Attractive Souvenir Is Given to the Interested Public By the Combined Efforts of Students and Teachers.

The first "annual" ever issued by the Washington C. H. High school and published by the class of 1913, is now out and is proving a publication of such popularity that but a few copies remain unsold.

In the putting out of "The Owl," a handsome souvenir of the Senior class of 1913, the class demonstrates its progressiveness and gives to the alumni a record of its school life and spirit and launches a publication that it is hoped will be continued by future classes. The Owl will undoubtedly redound to the future credit of the class of 1913 and especially to the Annual Board of the class. Paul Zimmerman, editor-in-chief, who have brought out a very attractive annual, its entire make-up and clever subject matter putting it on a par with many college annuals. It contains 76 pages, enameled book 100 lb. paper, with a tasteful cover of Persian red, bearing "The Owl" and class numeral in dark green.

Throughout it is artistically illustrated with pictures of the class and school organizations and many original drawings from the pen of the class artist, Miss Anna Conner, and Ross Wiley, a former member of the High School.

The various fields of class history, athletic features, the debate, the Glee clubs and social events are fully and ably covered with the spice of humorous take-offs enlivening every page.

Notably good are the "Senior Sketches," in which each member of the class of 1913 is given a witty personal mention opposite his or her photograph.

The productions of the class officers are among the interesting features of the annual. Miss Jane Saxton, class historian, and fine student, has a brilliant history of the Senior class. Miss Mary Dahl Tysor, as class lawyer, presents a class "will" teeming with bright wit and Miss Ruth Smith, class prophet, who has a natural gift in the line of imaginative writings, has a delightfully original class prophecy.

The class poet, Miss Sarah Holmes, contributes a charming class poem.

Well written class histories of each class are from the pen of a class member, Miss Dorothy Saxton, of the class of '14, giving the Junior class history, Paul Craig, of class of '15, the Sophomore history, and Karl Beck, of class of '16, the Freshman history.

The prize story won by William Evans of the Sophomore class is published in full.

Altogether the class annual is a most entertaining and pleasing souvenir and a tribute to the bright minds of the class of 1913. Those who have not already purchased a copy will do well to make haste or they will find there are no copies available.

ROVING ROBBERS ARE STILL BUSY WITH EASY MARKS

Band of Thieving Gypsies Who Visited This City Monday Make Robbing a Specialty, and Have Often Been Arrested—Usually Work Fortune-telling Scheme. Robbed Many in Sedalia and Vicinity.

The same band of gypsies that passed through this city this week visited Sedalia in lower Madison county, and relieved a number of citizens of their cash, taking the money from their pockets and deliberately walking away with it.

Five of the unkept women stopped an old citizen, C. A. Henneman, and relieved him of a five dollar bill. Later he saw the woman and compelled her to return it. She also placed her hands in the pockets of Doc Andrews, but he promptly grabbed her hand and forced her to leave the contents of his pocket unmolested giving her a smart cuff across the face to remind her that she had gotten the "wrong pig by the ear."

The gang attempted to pilfer every place they entered, and they entered nearly every business house in the village, laying hands upon various articles and starting out with them until hailed by the store-keeper.

They stopped a young colored man on the country road, and he was forced to flee to prevent them from taking his money and other valuables. Previous to visiting Sedalia they pilfered West Jefferson, Lafayette and other points, stopping many persons on the highway and under the pretext of telling their fortunes deliberately robbed them of from one to ten dollars.

For several years this same band town.

of disreputable rovers have been making trips throughout this part of Ohio, literally holding up and robbing citizens wherever they have met them.

At one time they were arrested in this county, tried and convicted, but upon returning the money to the one from whom they had taken it, and paying the costs in the case the women were released. They had huge rolls of bills, and it is estimated that they carried with them several thousand dollars, and it is further believed that the entire amount was stolen from "easy marks" who let them get away with it rather than protest and cause the arrest of the unprincipled nomads who evidently make their living by pilfering from others.

Time and again the gypsies have been arrested, but have always managed to escape more severe punishment than a mere fine, which was always readily paid and the offender released to again commence the same work of stealing before leaving the city or county.

The men remain in the wagons, while the glaringly dressed women do the prowling and stealing, and usually rob their victim while telling his fortune, generally having him place his pocket-book in his hand, or a piece of money, or else deliberately reaching into the fellow's pocket and just as deliberately walking off with his money, usually from one to ten dollars.

In places of business they work by twos or threes, one attracting the merchant or clerk's attention while the others pick up whatever they can get their hands on, or rap the till.

Yankees Are Now On The Way Up The Ladder

ANOTHER FOR CHANCE

New York Takes Advantage of Naps' Errors and Blandings' Wiliness. Cleveland, O., May 14.—Taking advantage of Cleveland's errors and of Blandings' wiliness, the New York Yankees, marshalled by pitcher Ford, paraded around the parks and cleaned up the Naps 8 to 1. Despite the fact that Birmingham and Laine were out of the game, the Naps showed lots of pepper. Nine hits were counted off Blandings. Ford was no more fortunate so far as hits were concerned. Score:

New York, 8; Cleveland, 1. B. Blandings, 2-3; Ford, 1-0. Hits—N.Y., 9; Cle., 1. Errors—Cle., 3. Runners put out—N.Y., 10; Cle., 1.

Two Divorce Suits Out of the Ordinary Launched in Courts

One Woman Accuses Husband of Bigamy, and the Second Asks Divorce After Nearly Quarter of a Century of Married Life.

Two divorce suits of more than passing importance have been filed in the Fayette county courts, one in the Common Pleas and the other in the Probate court, and in one the wife accuses the husband of being a bigamist, claiming that he had a wife living when he married her, the plaintiff.

The first case is that of Louise Williams against Samuel Williams. This action was filed in Probate court by Haynes and Haynes, attorneys of Wilmington, and the plaintiff states that she was married to the defendant in Hillsboro in October, 1911, and that since that time she has wholly neglected her, failing to have proper medical treatment during a long illness and that upon one occasion he came for her and sent her home to her mother in Franklin county.

The second case was filed in Common Pleas court, and is styled Elizabeth Dixon against Wm. S. Dixon, Greeng, Patton and Greeng being the attorneys.

In this case the marriage occurred nearly a quarter of a century ago—December, 1889, and six children were born of the marriage, ranging in age from 7 to 22 years.

Neglect of duty, and cruelty, charged by the plaintiff, who claims that the defendant has left home and remained away for long periods of time, without informing her of his whereabouts, and that he was addicted to the use of strong drinks. Alimony and divorce asked.

She alleges that at the time he married her, wife No. 1 was living, and that a divorce had never been secured by the defendant, and that the last she heard of the defendant he was living on Front street, Springfield, Ohio.

She asks for divorce, alimony and restoration to her maiden name of Louise Cobard. The case possesses some curious features that will probably involve at least one nice legal question.

Black Jack Faces Term In the Pen

JOHNSON CONVICTED

Black Pug Found Guilty, as Charged On Seven Counts.

Chicago, May 14.—Black Johnson, the negro pugilist, was found guilty of violation of the Mann act in connection with Belle Schreiber, a white woman of 19 years. The jury deliberated for a few hours and found the pugilist guilty as charged on seven counts. The penalty is five years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine on each count. Motion for a new trial will be heard May 16. Johnson was released on $30,000 bail.

Fast Games Last Night

A large number of the series of amateur ball games played by the business and professional men's college ball leagues at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night, were very interesting, some of them being of the whirlwind type and hard fought on both sides.

The first four games were played by Anthony's and Thompson's teams, resulting in four straight victories for Thompson's team, the score standing 10 to 14.

Next came the Ellis and Rankin teams in a series of four interesting games, resulting in both teams winning a pair of games, Rankin making 28 points and Ellis 24 points.

Then the Heiskell and Baer teams battled for supremacy, Heiskell winning three games, the score standing 19 for Heiskell and 31 for Baer.

Result by games: Thompson, 10-10-10; Anthony, 8-1-5-9; Ellis, 6-10-10-14; Rankin, 10-4-1-19; Heiskell, 10-10-9-10; Baer, 1-9-19-3.

To date the series of games of the league stand: Heiskell, 5 games, 67 points; Thompson, 3, 59; Baer, 3, 56; Rankin, 3, 50; Ellis, 3, 43; Anthony, 2, 41. In all each team has played seven games.

Identify Players With Glass. Bellefontaine, O., May 14.—Armed with a spyglass, Sheriff Cook and deputies ascertained the identities of poker players half a mile away. When the gamblers returned to the city they were arrested.

Motorcycle Lands Rider in Ditch

Willis Hottelmann, former Jefferson township resident, now assisting his father in conducting a general store at Lees Creek south of Sabina, nearly met death at the latter point recently when his motorcycle skidded during him into the ditch and seriously injuring him.

He was trying to outrun a train and was doing it until the motorcycle went into the ditch and was wrecked. "It" as he is familiarly known in this county, was bruised and cut and is slowly recovering from his visit to the brink of the grave.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS

IT IS POSSIBLE many times by acting promptly to avoid disappointment—and no one enjoys being disappointed.

 But that is just what will happen to very many residents of this city and county in the event that they continue neglecting to give their order for one of the New Fayette County Directories now being compiled.

Enough of these valuable books will be printed to fill all orders received—disappointment will be the lot of those who do not act in time.

The Directory will contain full and accurate information concerning everyone of the people residing in the county who is 16 years of age or over. This mine of information is something everyone will want and should have. Farmers, Business and Professional Men, Lawyers, Doctors, Contractors, Laborers and all will daily find uses for such a book, but once the edition is exhausted it will be impossible to get one at any price.

Usually Directories containing only the names and abridged information concerning the citizens of Washington and the larger towns of the county, together with a list of taxpayers outside, costs from $3.50 to $4.00.

This book will make a clean sweep. None will be missed. The aim is to enumerate EVERY person in the whole county who is 16 years of age or over.

As to the price it is nothing in comparison. $1.50 pays for one of these Directories, and the person paying the price will receive paid up subscription either to The Ohio State Register or Daily Herald to the value of $1.00. In no other way can the Directories be bought. This remarkably low price is due to efforts of this company to bring about the largest possible distribution of a work that should be in every office, store, home

Do not delay longer. Give your order to the enumerators or come or send direct to this office.
